Plan Terms and Conditions:

- This is NOT dental insurance, rather a savings plan. This savings plan cannot be used in conjunction with dental insurance or other discounts. This plan is only valid at this dental office. Care from other providers or specialists is not included. Plan fees are subject to change.
- If you are a current patient enrolling in the Smile Advantage Plan, your account MUST have a ZERO balance.
- The plan is not retroactive and will become effective on the date of enrollment.
- It is the member's responsibility to utilize the services included in this agreement within their plan year limit. Any unused benefits will not be carried over or refunded. The plan is non-transferrable.
- In exchange for the care provided under this plan, the covered member agrees to pay all balances in full at the time of treatment. If treatment is not paid in FULL at the time of service, the discount is void. If paying for treatment using Care Credit, ClearGage or Compassionate Finance, the discount will be lessened by 10%.
- The member has the right to opt out of the plan for a full refund within 30 days of enrollment as long as treatment has not started. If ANY treatment has been performed or if 30 days from enrollment have lapsed, NO refund will be given. The member will be responsible for paying the remaining balance regardless of services rendered.
- Services are based upon a plan year. The full membership dues are due on the date of enrollment and eligibility will begin at that time remaining active for one year. There are no waiting periods. Your membership can be renewed at the end of each plan year.
- If appointments are broken without 24 hours prior notice, a cancellation fee will apply.
